The Eleventh Bishop of the Diocese of La Crosse

After I finished praying my Holy Hour on Tuesday morning, the Solemnity of St. Joseph, I opened my inbox to see a startling email. Other text messages from friends and family confirmed the breaking news. Earlier that morning, Pope Francis announced that he accepted the letter of resignation of Bishop William Callahan and appointed auxiliary Bishop Gerard Battersby to be the eleventh Bishop of the Diocese of La Crosse.

For those who have seen Bishop Callahan in the past few years at public engagements know that Bishop Callahan's health was in poor shape. At times, it was difficult for him to persevere through the end of a celebration like a Mass, and he, at times, had to delegate Confirmations to other priests. From my experience with Bishop Callahan as a seminarian and a couple of years as a priest, some of his favorite things to do as a bishop are Confirmations and Ordinations. It was a blessing to have him ordain me a deacon on May 1, 2021, the Solemnity of St. Joseph the Workman, patron saint of our Diocese, and on June 25, 2022, the memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

At every Mass, during the Eucharist Prayer, we pray for the Pope and for the local Bishop. It was strange to begin to pray "Gerard, our Bishop," at Mass on Tuesday. This is what we are called to do. When I made my promise of obedience at my ordination, it was to "Bishop Callahan and to his successors." To make this shift is another blessed opportunity to live out my vocation according to God's will.

Lastly, I think that it is nothing short of Providence that Pope Francis made this announcement on the Solemnity of St. Joseph. St. Joseph is a patron saint of our Diocese, so let us invoke his intercession for Bishop Emeritus Callahan and God's will for him in the next stages of his life. Let us invoke St. Joseph's intercession for our new Bishop Battersby and for his upcoming pastoral work for the flock in the Diocese of La Crosse. St. Joseph is the patron saint of the universal Church. Why? The Church is the Body of Christ, and St. Joseph was tasked to protect the Blessed Mother and Jesus Christ, Whose body Joseph cradled. Thus, St. Joseph continues to protect the Body of Christ, that is, he continues to protect all of us.

Blessings,

Fr. Matthew

Sacramental Life

Baptism: Because we believe in the ordinary necessity of Baptism for salvation, it is customary that newborns be baptized as soon as is practical, usually within a month after birth. Parents need to attend baptism preparation with Deacon Sam prior to scheduling a baptism. Please contact the parish office for details or to register.

Marriage: Couples should contact the Pastor at the time of formal engagement or at least eight months prior to the desired date of the wedding. In the case of a mixed marriage, the non-Catholic party must arrange to receive instructions about the Catholic faith prior to the celebration of the sacrament.

For Youth and

Keeping in mind that mercy is the desire to lessen the suffering of others, our final saint is the epitome of this definition. When we think of someone who helped those who suffered in our modern day times, our minds should hopefully jump to Mother Teresa. She definitely came to the aid of those who not only suffered bodily, but also spiritually in her work with the poor.

Mother Teresa was born Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu. Her father died when she was only 8 years old, leaving her family in a dire financial situation. She always felt called to missionary work and at 18 joined with the Sisters of Loreto in Ireland. She was named Sister Mary Teresa after St. Theresa of the Little Flower. She was sent to India shortly after and within a few years took her first profession of vows and after her final profession when she was nearly 27, she was known as Mother Teresa.

On a train trip to her annual retreat, Mother Teresa had a vision in which Jesus begged her to take care of the poorest of the poor. He wanted her to begin a new religious community whose mission was to help those people, to be His light to them. It took her nearly two years of discernment (prayer and contemplation) until she was able to begin. Her days started with communion and then with her rosary in hand, she went to find the poorest of the poor. After some time, she was joined by former students and her work grew from there.

Young Adults

In what ways can we be more like Mother Teresa in our own families, schools, larger communities? Do we try to lessen the suffering of others? Are we even aware that others are suffering, whether physically, emotionally or spiritually? Or do we turn the other way and continue on with what we want to do?

Sacred Heart School News

4K & 5K with Mrs. Klinge

In these last days of Lent we are challenging ourselves to do some hard things. St. Patrick chose to forgive the people who made him a slave and go back to Ireland. That must have been hard... What does Jesus ask us to do that is hard?

- He wants us to trust him, even when we are scared.
- We need to believe in him, even though we can't see him.

He is in our hearts!

- We have to forgive the people that hurt us.
- Jesus doesn't want us to hit back when someone hits us.
- We need to use kind words even when we get mad.
- We have to love everyone.
- Jesus says to pray for your enemies.
- We need to try to obey all of the time.
- We should keep getting up when we fall down.

1st & 2nd with Mrs. Balk

Happy Spring!! Tuesday was the first day of spring and we were hearing rumblings of snow in our future. Could it be true? We were not sure, but it gave us food for thought. What are the best parts of a spring snowstorm?

- Getting to use my new sled
- Building snow forts
- Staying inside
- Sledding in the field
- Snow days

What are the worst parts of a spring snowstorm?

- The cold!
- The school will be out of business
- Having snow on my birthday (his birthday is in JULY!! I told him if there was snow on his birthday, Mrs. Balk was moving to Florida.)

- Wearing boots that are too small now
- Using snow pants that are all worn out

In a class vote, there was a narrow margin with a few more students that were in favor of a spring snowstorm versus those that were not in favor of one

3rd & 4th with Miss Santas

In third and fourth grade this week, in science we learned about slow and fast changes that happen on Earth. In Spanish we learned the intermediate directions and are learning all about some Spanish speaking countries. For English, we are working on all of the skills we have learned from the book this year, and spending some time working on using those in our writing; we are working on writing letters right now. We are doing a Great Mail Race, to send a letter to a Catholic school in other states and hopefully get a response to learn something about other Catholic schools in the U.S

5th-8th Math & Science with Mrs. Flock

This week the 5/6 graders are continuing their study of the civil war in Social Studies. We are analyzing the Emancipation Proclamation and how it freed only the slaves in the Confederate. This was a very controversial proclamation for a country at war with itself. In Math, Grade 5 is working on quadrilaterals while Grade 6 is making box and whisker plots and analyzing data with deviations. Grade 7 is learning how to calculate the mean, mode and median of a set of data and the eighth graders are factoring quadratic equations by completing the square.

5th-8th Literature & Spelling with Mrs. Slattery

Discord is the name of the uninvited goddess who tosses the golden apple among her peers. "To the fairest of the fair" she offers. What will come of Discord's gift? Nothing short of the Trojan War!

Let's leave verbs behind & move on to adverbs!

Religion with Mrs. Steger

7/8 focused on the mercy and forgiveness of the Father this week. How fitting as we enter into the holiest of weeks. Our Father is a font of mercy just waiting for us.

5/6 continued to the Liturgy of the Eucharist. There are so many parts to this 3rd part of the Mass. This is such a special part as it is through the Consecration that the bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Christ. And it is also through this part that we are able to receive Him, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity.

Atrium students worked on previous works. Second grade students worked on reconciliation card work and the parables of the lost sheep and the found coin. Some students also spent some time doing maxim work. If you don't know what a maxim is, ask the 3rd and 4th graders if they can tell you one.

Phy Ed with Mr. Steger

We've been taking advantage of the good weather to go outside for PE. The students really enjoy combining capture the ball with body weight movements, such as burpees, air squats, and push ups. The competitive spirit tends to be strong and sometimes the students worry too much about winning and not enough about being outside, moving, and getting some good exercise. Let's work extra hard on teamwork and good sportsmanship.

Art with Mrs. Leis

The students used the skills they learned last week to make a 3 dimensional face. Some students chose to make themselves or a sibling while others made an imaginary person. It was a fun project and tested the students ability to remember skills from week to week.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord

Reading Reflections

Today, we celebrate Palm Sunday. Reading about the climax of Christ's mission here on earth reminds us that He is the Perfect Steward, a model for us all on our stewardship journey. Our First Reading, from the prophet Isaiah, portrays a suffering servant. In many ways, the suffering servant foreshadows what Jesus endured during His passion. He humbly submitted to them even though He didn't deserve such torture. His mission as a steward was to fulfill His Father's mission. We, too, play a unique role in our Father's mission by bringing souls to Christ. It simply begins with the witness of our lives. Today's Gospel shares the account of Jesus' last days on earth, and how He lives them says a great deal about how we should live ours as faithful stewards. Jesus does many things in these last days, all around prayer and service — two trademark actions of a good and faithful Catholic. He hosts a Passover meal, giving us His Body and Blood in the Eucharist. He intensely prays to His Father. Lastly, He submits to humiliation, torture, and death for our sake, calling out to God the Father in His weakest moments. We might not be called to the same type of prayer and service, but we are all called to commit time to daily prayer with our Lord and to serve our families, churches, and neighbors. As we embark on this Holy week, let us take some time to reflect on the life of Christ as He is our model Steward, and may we strive to imitate Him daily.
